

Standing Of The ClubsAMERICAN LEAGUE

	W. L.	Pet.
Brooklyn	7	2
Baltimore	4	4
New York	4	4
Cincinnati	4	4
St. Louis	1	3
Washington	2	5
Toronto	5	1
Cleveland	2	1
New York	5	1
Philadelphia	2	1
Chicago	1	1
St. Louis	1	1
Washington	1	1
Boston	1	1
Philadelphia	1	1

Yesterdays Results.

Cleveland, 2; St. Louis, 1.

New York, 5; Washington, 4.

Philadelphia, 2; Boston, 1.

Chicago, at St. Louis, 1.

Games Friday.

Cleveland at Detroit.

Washington at New York.

Boston at Philadelphia.

Cincinnati at Pittsburgh.

St. PAUL BOWLERS COP

TWO HONORS OF LEAGUE

AT Y. M. C. A. LAST NIGHT

Two out of the three honors possible in the Church Bowling League were taken yesterday by the St. Paul's Lutheran team, when they met the Christian rollers and trounced them in each of the three games played and the same team won the high score mark for any five man team in the city, and also the highest score in a three game series, while they came within five points of lowering the record of S. F. Richards for individual high score.

Eddie Cleotte, the shiny ball expert,

has been heavily batted by Texas

league teams this week. Doubtless

he was saving his wing.

The Detroit pitchers are beginning to show the result of Bill Donovan's coaching.

ST. PATRICK'S TEAM

ISSUES CHALLENGE

A challenge to all school baseball teams in the city has been issued by the St. Patrick's nine. The Catholics have put together all their games this season and have issued the challenge with the idea of meeting all the school teams before the summer vacation. C. Gillespie is manager of the St. Patrick's team, and can be reached on the Bell phone, No. 682.

Eddie Cleotte, the shiny ball expert,

has been heavily batted by Texas

league teams this week. Doubtless

he was saving his wing.

The Detroit pitchers are beginning

to show the result of Bill Donovan's

coaching.

The Country's need demands conservation.

Your own responsibility as a motorist requires that you treat the equipment of your car as a business proposition.

Study your tire needs.

Select and buy the tires that will give utmost service per dollar, on the roads you travel, with your driving.

There is a United States Tire scientifically planned to meet every motoring requirement.

The steadily increasing sale of United States

Tires is an evidence of their solid worth.

Steadfast performance has proved their unfailing reliability and long-service economy.

Equip now with United States Tires.

Let our nearest Sales and Service Depot dealer help you to select the right ones.

Orfordville News

Orfordville, April 24.—The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Foreign Missionary society of the Methodist church was held on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. M. Hamblett. Mrs. Hamblett was assisted by Mrs. Gilbert, who has been assisting in the care of her son, who injured his foot, and returned to her home in Orfordville. Mrs. Gilbert was at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Gilbert, over Sunday and returned on Monday to the university. He has recently suffered an illness from poison.

Mrs. O. W. Blanchard was called again the first of the week to the bedside of their sister, Mrs. Marlan Hall, who was recently vacated by Claud Grenawalt and family.

The home talent play given at the school auditorium on Tuesday evening by the Footville dramatic club was well attended and very much enjoyed. The proceeds amounted to $100, which was divided between the local Red Cross chapter and the one at Footville.

On Friday Orfordville will observe the national half holiday and in the afternoon will have a patriotic demonstration. O. E. Oestreich of Janesville, will deliver the address and the Luther Valley band will be present and furnish music. A good time is anticipated.

DELAVAN

Delavan, April 24.—C. E. Sturtevant is in Milwaukee today on business.

F. Campbell received a painful cut above the eye one evening the first of the week while chopping kindling. It was necessary for the doctor to take a few stitches to close the cut. Earl Thompson was here from Allen's Grove today, and met his mother, who came over from Whitewater to attend some business. Mrs. Thompson was able to dispose of the piece of land they purchased shortly before her husband's death, and will make her home with her daughter in Whitewater.

Mrs. Mary Minshall, who has been assisting in the care of her son, who injured his foot, has returned to her home in Orfordville. Mrs. Gilbert was at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Gilbert, over Sunday and returned on Monday to the university. He has recently suffered an illness from poison.

Mrs. O. W. Blanchard was called again the first of the week to the bedside of their sister, Mrs. Marlan Hall, who was recently vacated by Claud Grenawalt and family.

The home talent play given at the school auditorium on Tuesday evening by the Footville dramatic club was well attended and very much enjoyed. The proceeds amounted to $100, which was divided between the local Red Cross chapter and the one at Footville.

On Friday Orfordville will observe the national half holiday and in the afternoon will have a patriotic demonstration. O. E. Oestreich of Janesville, will deliver the address and the Luther Valley band will be present and furnish music. A good time is anticipated.

Buy Tires to Fit Your Needs

National economy has no place for haphazard tire-buying.

The Country's need demands conservation.

Your own responsibility as a motorist requires that you treat the equipment of your car as a business proposition.

Study your tire needs.

Select and buy the tires that will give utmost service per dollar, on the roads you travel, with your driving.

There is a United States Tire scientifically planned to meet every motoring requirement.

The steadily increasing sale of United States Tires is an evidence of their solid worth.

Steadfast performance has proved their unfailing reliability and long-service economy.

Equip now with United States Tires.

Let our nearest Sales and Service Depot dealer help you to select the right ones.

For Passenger Cars—'Usco' Tread, as illustrated;

also 'Royal Cord', 'Chain', 'Nobby' and 'Plain'.

United States Tires are Good Tires

GROCERIES PROVISIONS

A complete stock of United States Tires is carried by the following Sales and Service Depots

PRIELIPP & WEIBLER, 16-18 South Bluff St.
KEMMERER GARAGE, 206-12 East Milwaukee St.

afternoon was well attended. The children of the lower grades sang several patriotic songs, and Prof. Nelscher gave a talk on the Junior auxiliary established here and in Davien. Miss Lee, as chairman, read a paper on child welfare. A collection was taken up of 50 cents each and was donated to the auxiliary and the money was spent by the ladies in sewing.

G. H. Hollister will build sidewalk street.

Mrs. M. O'Brien is having her house on Third street resurfaced. Maurice Cotter and Mr. Joyner are doing the work.

Mr. and Mrs. Orson Boughton are from Durbin this afternoon.

Wm. J. Thompson.

W. E. Perlholz is having hardware in his residence on Third addition, Janesville.

E. G. Broughton transacted business in Chicago today.

Attorney Maurice Morrissey was in Elkhorn earlier this afternoon.

NOTICE—Gazette is on sale at Rustad's Drug Store, opposite the Post Office.

Mr. Ericson of the Institute Hill is sick and is being attended by a nurse.

Elton Brown and family were here from Durbin this afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Orson Boughton are from Durbin this afternoon.

Wm. J. Thompson.

A. R. Waite and wife to Clarence Dow, of Nettleton, lot 3, block 18, Dow's Addition.

Edith Johnson, lot 14, block 14, Janesville.

Henry C. Stricker and wife to Adolph Jensen, lot 16, Perry, Bentley & Jensen's addition, Edgerton.

Kate Hansen to Pangazon Grange, Edgerton, lot 14, Southern Heights addition, Edgerton.

Edward M. Dickey and wife to Alvin Shantz, lot 6, block 1, Yates addition, Edgerton.

August Schlevert and wife to Will Read the classified ads.

August Schlevert and wife to Hermina Steaver, lot 6, block 14, village Rockport.

August Schlevert and wife to Will Read the classified ads.

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS.

August Shlevert and wife to Hermina Steaver, lot 6, block 14, village Rockport.

August Schlevert and wife to Will Read the classified ads.

New Summer

A splendid showing of new models for spring and summer wear.

Many attractive styles in wovens, foxcoons, etc. The various items for summer will be displayed in the sunroom.

W.F.BROWN'S
A Complete, Exclusive Specialty Shop for Women and Misses 35 S. Main Street, Janesville, Wisconsin

Announcing an Extraordinary Large Display Friday and Saturday of Smart Outer Apparel for Women and and Misses at Attractive Prices

A great number of smart new styles have arrived from New York this week which have been added to our collection of beautiful styles. In order to emphasize the wonderful styles we are showing and the truly remarkable values to be found at this store we have planned a special display for Friday and Saturday at which time we will offer many special values and display the smartest styles of the season.

Exceptional Values Offered in Suits at $22.50, $25 and $27.50

We will feature at the above prices, Friday and Saturday, a wonderful collection of new suits of an unusually high order. The styles represent the very newest shown this season and the materials and workmanship are of qualities usually found in suits much higher in price. Among the materials are Serges, Gabardines, Tricotines, Poiret Twills, English Tweeds, etc. All the popular colors are included. Every suit represents a very special value.

"Other suits up to $65.00."

Women's and Misses' Silk Dresses and Frocks Specially Priced at $14.75, $16.75 and $19.75

These charming dresses featured at the above low prices come in a score or more of charming styles and they represent the newest spring styles. They come in Taffetas, Crepe de Chines, Satins, Plaid Silks and Georgettes.

At no previous time this season have we been able to show such a really fine collection of charming styles and at such reasonable prices. Every Woman or Miss who desires the bit-different in frocks and who appreciates real values should see

The Janesville Gazette

New Bldg. 200-201 E. Milwaukee St.
ENTERED AT THE POSTOFFICE AT JANESEVILLE, WIS., AS SECOND CLASS MAIL MATTER.

BUSINESS OFFICE OPEN SATUR-DAY EVENING.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES.

By Carrier in Mo. Yr. 65c. 1 yr. 55c.

Janesville, ... 60c $0.00 $2.35 $5.70

Rural Route in Rock Co. and No. Yr. 50c $0.00 $1.60 $4.00

Postage Paid territory No. Yr. 50c $0.00 $1.60 $4.00

By Mail 50c $0.00 $1.60 $4.00

This newspaper is a member of the Wisconsin Association and protects its uncompromising loyalty to our Government in this war.

MEMBER OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.

The Associated Press is exclusively entrusted to the use for reputation of all news disputes between it or no other is credited in this paper and also the most news published herein.

THE SHORT CUTS OF WAR.

It is marvelous how things get done in war time that are impossible of accomplishment in times of peace. The winter of daylight saving, for instance. This has been advocated for a number of years. But few people became interested in it. Popular inertia could not be overcome.
Most of us laughed at it as a mere deception. It might have taken twenty years to convert the mass of the people to the idea. But in war time, it comes almost without effort.

Take the giving of money to philanthropies. It is easier to get $100,000 today for the Red Cross than it used to be to get $1,000,000 for the most useful and necessary philanthropic cause in our country. This is partly because the need for this work is universally manifest. Yet there have been many of our good causes in previous years that should appeal to everyone.

Probably the reason for the change is that the spirit of sacrifice is in the air. We are all deeply impressed by the heroism of the soldiers. That makes people ashamed to sit at home and count their blessings. It would seem as if this greater openness of heart should continue after the war.
Let us hope our people have learned a lesson, and from now on will be ashamed just to sleep and eat, and never give to help suffering and remove ignorance.

We have all known that Congress distributed favors on a pork basis.
Also that the departments were strangled in a network of restricting red tape. But no one party or group of statesmen had energy or courage or determination or power enough to root out these evils. When war time comes, the people demand efficiency at once. The man or the group of party that does not get it has to go.
If we can only carry this spirit into the time of reconstruction after the war, the losses we have to face will not be wholly in vain.

COME ON BROTHER.

Come across brother. Remember that this third liberty loan means much to this country so do not be backward about subscribing. The dying standards that have invaded the former districts have found hard panning in many districts due to many conditions, but this should not prevent a liberal subscription to the bond, that are going to redeem the nation, to finance the war and bring about a lasting peace that will make this world safe for humanity. The average farmer apparently needs a lot of persuasion before he will look at matters material. In the proper light and the men who are devoting their time and energy in selling these bonds are having hard work to convince them of the absolute necessity of loaning Uncle Sam their money at a good rate of interest when the price of milk and the price of farm products remain as yet unsettled. The man who is really affected by this war is the man on the salary that is not elastic. Men with trades can command fabulous wages. Labor is in demand, food prices have soared beyond conception and the farmer who refuses to pay bonds while his city brother works on a salary and struggling to make both ends meet is not a patriot. On the other hand there are many farm homes that lack of machine gun babies, others with more modest contributions, men who know and appreciate what this war really means and are doing their share by placing their money at the disposal of the government and tilling their soil to bring forth greater crops that the hungry may be fed.
Come across brother, before it is too late, and do not be listed as a slack-er and a slicker.

THE DRAFT.

If a man is perfectly able financially to purchase Liberty bonds and will not, if he be of draft age and subject to the call for service, his name should be presented to the draft board and a committee of citizens will upon the hearing investigate and insist that he be permitted to enter the ranks of the coming fighters. To the father who has half done, or even two or three husky sons, some of whom have escaped draft by exemption, who refuses to buy bonds, he should be made to feel the real pangs of war and not merely enjoy the benefits due to increased prices of food products. Record should be kept of these cases—isolated though they may be—and the exemption board put in touch with the full information that they may act accordingly. Pay or right is the motto. If you can not right then pay and help those who can fight.

SALARIES.

Of course the salaries of the firemen and the policemen must be raised just as well as the salaries of the other city employees who are underpaid, under the present regime of high prices, but do not get excited about it. The raise will be made just as soon as the new council is able to fully decide just how far their powers extend and what they can and can not do. While we are about it the city fathers might look into the future and make provision for a raise in the salary of school officials and the various teachers whom we hope to inculcate knowledge to the next generation of citizens. Meanwhile take care of the immediate needs and no one will complain. Leave it to Mayor Valentine and he will act according to his best judgment and with a view to the best results.

BOTTLED UP.

If reports be true the sailors of the English navy have performed a wonderful feat in bottling up the submarine bases in captured Belgium that have so long been a menace to shipping interests and the world at large.
It was a brave deed, remarkably well conceived and executed. In 1898 Hobson and his daring crew of American bluejackets, tried the same trick at Santiago harbor and were all claimed as heroes—deservedly so. If the German sub-bases have been bottled up and the various entrances and exit into the North sea blocked so that the Hun can not send forth more marauders, it is a wonderful bit of news, and let us hope it is true.

It has so far proved impossible to close up indecent theatrical performances and movie shows, but printing a list of the men present who are supposed by their wives to have gone to the lodge might be useful.

The people who complain about the high cost of lumber and other building materials, are sometimes the same ones who throw away matches and leave camp fires that burn up timber lands.

The people who will find a lot of fault at the lack of shade on the streets next summer are the same ones who never would take the trouble to plant a single tree themselves.

There is no reason for discouraging baseball in war time. The fellow who can throw a ball from center field to home plate can land a green-ade in the Hun trenches next year.

According to the pacifists, if the time comes in and put their bloody heels on your wife and daughters, the thing to do is to twirl your thumbs and quote poetry.

If you look pleasant at the Liberty loan collector, it will encourage him to work for good subscription from your neighbor.

Some people's theory of how to win this war is to get out and wop over the failures of our allies. Other people try to take hold and do something to help.

If the government wishes to discourage the hanging of German spies, might cut out a few of the extra comforts given them in the internment camps.

objection is made to the practice of carrying and feathering pro-Germans, as the tar is needed for sidewalks, and some people still enjoy leather beds.

The airplane manufacturers are respectfully reminded that quantity production five years after the war is ended, will do us very little good.

Also track athletics should be encouraged. The Marathon runner will be a mighty good fellow to pursue the Boches to Berlin.

ON THE SPUR of the MOMENT
ROY K. MOULTON

YE GUD OLDE DAYS.
(Taken from the Diary of Peg-Polett, 1803.)

Wednesday, 17 March. Rose with the larks and seeming fit for the labours of the day.

Had for breakfast, besides a bowl of steaming java, a large dish of bacon and eggs, of which we did eat of the latter, though not much, with relish, as they are so cheap. And bacon is in plebian food. Was it not only yesterday that Neighbor Pringle drove over and gave us nine slices of bacon? But he is a schemer.

He knew the bacon would spoil on his hands and it is not worth hawking to market. It brings but fifty cents per hundred weight.

We are very weary of bacon and much we burn in the grate of an evening to encourage the fire in the green pine logs. It is also of value in greasing the boots. But, as food, there are other things I would prefer.

To the market for Mistress Peggy, where I did obtain a nice variety of meats, bacon, ham, veal, mutton, liver, kidneys, etc., and a brace of dressed partridges, two pounds of cheese, a bushel of potatoes and some sweetmeats with the dollar she gave me.

Taken home with the change, after stopping at the Royal Lion for several beakers of ale, which further reduced the change to only twenty cents.

At luncheon I was much writh to official count showed that license had been won by the narrow margin of 13 votes. The petition lists the names of sixteen men who are believed to have voted illegally, and one whose vote came in by mail and was not counted. It is believed that the seven votes will materially change the results of the election, and may result in a dry Elkhorn.

At supper naught but an eighteen-pointed larded roast and a plum pudding, which two are my pet aversions.

Mistress Peggy today drew to town with fifty pounds of butter, a dozen large bacon eggs and returned proudly with $7.12, a truly grand sum.

To the Royal Lion in the evening to enjoy several beakers of ale and the fine free banquet upon the bar, including strange imported sausages, roasted turkey, prime cheese, anchovies with which the barmy sausages are covered.

At luncheon with my butcher to send me two halves of beef, three hams and five dressed sheep for $4.35 to hang in my cellar.

And so home and to bed, full of monotonous food but content with the ale.

Tomorrow an egg-throwing match and a barbecue with whole roast ox, on the common.

A man in Uniontown, Pa., has sixteen children. The government must owe him quite a sum each year in income tax exemptions—if he is allowed $200 for every one.

Sure, we know the longer days are not hand. Our electric light bills are going up.

We are gaining a slight impression lately that Admiral von Tirpitz is talking through his whiskers.

The old-fashioned girl was a prim little miss.

Her skirt it was fulsome and dragged on the ground. She did fog out like a jewelry store.

And didn't go low-pecked the whole year around.

She was shy and a prim and a diffident lass.

And she was admired from the east to the west.

She was everything sweet and demure and all that—

But the girl today is the one I like best.

TODAY'S CASUALTY LIST IS SEVENTEEN DEATHS

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.

Washington, April 25.—The casualty list today includes forty-nine killed and fifteen wounded, as follows: 12 died of wounds; 4 died of accidents; 14 died of disease; 7 other causes; 1 buried severely; 3 wounded slight-

Just Folks

By Edgar A. Guest.
A CAT AND CHILDREN.

One day unto her cosy flat
A neighbor brought her Persian cat
And said to her: "Please keep, I pray
This cat for me while I'm away.
Be good to it, and do not let
It any poisoned victual get.
Watch over it while I'm away
And do not let it go astray."

She gave that cat the tenderest care,
She fed it on the finest fare,
And worried lest it come to harm;
Once roused the neighbors in alarm
Because that cat had gone astray,
And later on was heard to say:
"So watchful I must daily be,
That cat does not belong to me."

About us everywhere today
Are children running wild in play,
Not getting the attention that
Is given to the neighbor's cat;
It seems the parents fail to see That they are doubly bound to be Regardful of the ways they piod.

Our children are not ours to own,
God merely sends them as a loan,
And says: "Give them your tenderest care
And guard them well while they are there."

Let not their minds be poisoned by
The vices that around them lie;
Watch over them, till that day when I shall return for them again."

Oh you who guard your neighbor's cat,
Look to your children, fearful that
You miss the obligation there.
The Lord has placed them in your care.

They are not yours, always to own,
But by their lives shall you be known.

For God is trusting you today
To see they do not go astray.

Who's Who In Today's News

MAJ. GEN. PEYTON C. MARCH
The United States army's new acting chief of staff is an optimist.
Despite the collapse of Germany's western front, Gen. March is progress on the western front. Maj. Gen.
Peyton C. March cannot see anything but ultimate victory for our allied armies. His views are based on reports from Gen.

Pershing and Gen. Bliss in France and other military commanders.

Gen. March appears to be guided by a definite plan of operation, which will be followed when opportunity arises.

When the war began not much was known of "Bob" March, as his friends back at Lafayette college, Eaton, Pa., call him.

He was in the Mexican "muddle" during 1915 and General Pershing had him take to France as chief artillerist of the American contingent of West Point and the Artillery school, Fort Monroe, he began his military career as a second lieutenant in artillery.

In the Spanish-American war he commanded the Astor battery and later went to the Philippines as an aid to Gen. MacArthur, displaying ability and bravery. Gen. Venancio Conception, chief of Aquino's forces, survived the battle and became a colonel in 1902.

He was a military attaché to study the conduct of the Japanese army in the Russo-Japanese war.

In 1917 he became a brigadier general and a few months later major general.

He has been serving in the War Department since 1917.

General March is the son of Rev.
and Mrs. E. L. Eaton, 328 North Lake street, Madison, Wis. Rev. Eaton is a former resident of this city and lived in Janesville a great many years before moving to Madison. Captain Eaton is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin and is well known in this city. He and his wife have served since June, 1916, being commissioned as captain in the regular army. Captain Eaton will sail for France within a short time.

General March is the son of Rev.
and Mrs. E. L. Eaton, 328 North Lake
street, Madison, Wis. Rev. Eaton is a former resident of this city and lived in Janesville a great many years before moving to Madison. Captain Eaton is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin and is well known in this city. He and his wife have served
since June, 1916, being commissioned
as captain in the regular army. Captain Eaton will sail for France within
a short time.

General March is the son of Rev.
and Mrs. E. L. Eaton, 328 North Lake
street, Madison, Wis. Rev. Eaton is a former resident of this city and lived in Janesville a great many years before moving to Madison. Captain Eaton is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin and is well known in this city. He and his wife have served
since June, 1916, being commissioned
as captain in the regular army. Captain Eaton will sail for France within
a short time.

General March is the son of Rev.
and Mrs. E. L. Eaton, 328 North Lake
street, Madison, Wis. Rev. Eaton is a former resident of this city and lived in Janesville a great many years before moving to Madison. Captain Eaton is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin and is well known in this city. He and his wife have served
since June, 1916, being commissioned
as captain in the regular army. Captain Eaton will sail for France within
a short time.

Buy LIBERTYBONDS

The Best Investment IN THE WORLD

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK

Established 1855.

Third Liberty Loan Bonds

are the safest investment in the world; they are backed by the entire resources of the United States and they pay you interest at four and one-quarter per cent twice a year.

Merchants & Savings Bank

The Oldest Savings Bank in Rock County.

CHIROPRACTOR E. H. DAMROW, D.C. PALMER SCHOOL GRADUATE 209 Jackman Block

Both Phones 970.

F. W. MILLER

CHIROPRACTOR
409-410 Jackman Block
R. C. Phone 179 Black
Hours 9 A. M. to 6 P. M.
Lady Attendant
Your Spine Examined Free
Bell Phone 1604.

Alice G. Devine CHIROPRACTOR

305 Jackman Block,
Hours: 1 to 5 and by appointment.
Phone: Bell 211 W.; R. C. 140.
Residence: 123 J. R. C. 140.

HOLLAND HAS 100,000 MEN UNDER ARMS

The following gives an idea of Holland's military and naval strength:

Population (approximately), 7,000.

Total area (square miles), 15,760.

Troops under arms (turny and navy), 90,000.

Infantry equipped with Mauser rifles.

Field artillery equipped with Q. F. Krupp's, 75 cm.

Field army has four divisions and a cavalry brigade.

Navy has four large cruisers, eight torpedo boats, twelve destroyers and four gunboats, ten submarines and a number of gunboats.

Norden University Trained.

Four destroyers being built in Germany for Holland when the war started were seized by the Germans.

In Holland all roads between the cities of 10 and 40 are dedicated to armament and the road to sea service is 10 years, with about three or four years of actual training or service.

Holland is bordered on the south by Belgium and on the east by Germany. It has few fortresses and its system of defense is concentration of all forces in a restricted area known as "Holland Fortress." Two-thirds of this area is surrounded by water and could not be made impregnable by inundation.

Dikes One Factor.

It is said that three persons, including the queen and the commander-in-chief of the army, carry keys which would unlock the dikes and isolate the greater part of Holland after the outbreak of war. Holland apparently strengthened her forces and defenses, but no data are available.

Locally the entire male population under arms and planes have been ready to be made for emergency night arise.

The latter are sturdy fighters, of German origin well officered, and present a formidable force to be reckoned with.

WILLIAM G. WHEELER APPOINTED SOLICITOR

An announcement has been made of the appointment of William G. Wheeler as assistant general solicitor in charge of the territory covering Wisconsin and Michigan and to perform other legal duties for the Chicago and Northwestern railway company. The appointment follows the retirement of the railway as a result of the reorganization of the legal department since the road went under government control.

The appointments were announced by R. H. Ashton, president of the railroad.

The easier way.

"Don't you want to be a leader of the people?" "It's hard work to be a real leader," commented Senator Borgham. "It's usually easier to get along by jollying the crowd."—Washington Star.

Bargains in most everything are listed in the classified columns.

$907,950 SUBSCRIBED TO THIRD LIBERTY LOAN

MILLION DOLLAR MARK WILL BE REACHED IN OPINION OF MEN IN CHARGE OF LIBERTY LOAN CAMPAIGN.

SCOUTS OUT SATURDAY

Boy Scouts Will Open Their Drive Saturday Morning—Will Encourage to Beat Marks Set in Previous Campaigns.

Janesville's Quota... $ 800,000
Already Subscribed... 907,950
Estimated Total... 1,000,000

One million dollars subscribed in the third Liberty loan is the answer that Janesville is going to send out when the campaign is over. The million dollar mark is getting nearer each day and the coming week marks the time when we are optimistic over the results. The total subscriptions late this afternoon, as given out, were $907,950, or a gain of six thousand over yesterday. There are no solicitors working in the city at the present time, and the subscriptions that are coming in are purely voluntary.

Great interest is being displayed in the coming drive to be staged by the Boy Scouts, which opens on Saturday morning. The Scouts have done splendid work in the past and it is thought that their work in the present campaign will even outdo their work in the past. The Scouts are going to work with the dealers in the city, not Janesville, and will help to get the million dollar mark, and help set a mark that Beloit will have had a hard time to beat.

Very encouraging reports were received at loan headquarters, last evening from the county salesmen, with twelve $500 subscriptions. However, the country districts are not holding up so well as the towns, and the townships in this vicinity which is subscribing more than fifty per cent of its quota. This morning six cars left headquarters to canvass the towns of Harmony, Janesville and La Prairie. Tomorrow two cars will be sent out to finish the work.

Word has been received in this city that Wisconsin has already reached its quota and that it is the desire of the state committee to raise fifty per cent over the quota, and prove to the country that Wisconsin is loyal.

Total subscriptions for the townships in the vicinity of Janesville which have a combined quota of $1,000,000, have $800,000 on hand, with one day more to work. The farmers are doing much better work in this campaign than in the two previous ones, but they are not holding their own, and it is to the farmers that the county committee is making an appeal for them to do their bit as their city neighbors have done.

Miss Martha Spooner of Washington street is home from a visit of a week in Whitewater with friends.

Miss Marion Halston, from Rockford College, at Rockford, was a visitor in town this week.

Mrs. E. L. Skavlen and children of Beloit, who have been spending the winter at the home of Mrs. Noyseley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Lee of Forest Park boulevard, have returned home.

Out of Town Visitors.

Mrs. William Dean of Avalon was the guest of relatives in town this week.

The Reverend and Mrs. R. G. Piereson of the Baptist church returned today from Milwaukee where they attended the annual meeting of Women's Foreign and Woman's Home Missionary societies held there the 23rd and 24th of April.

Mrs. Clem Farnum of North High street will be the guest of Chippewa friends for a week, has returned home.

Miss Martha Spooner of Washington street is home from a visit of a week in Whitewater with friends.

Miss Marion Halston, from Rockford College, at Rockford, was a visitor in town this week.

Mrs. E. L. Skavlen and children of Beloit, who have been spending the winter at the home of Mrs. Noyseley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Lee of Forest Park boulevard, have returned home.

LIBERTY DAY WILL BE OBSERVED HERE

Monster Parade Followed by Exercises In Court House Park Program for Liberty Day.

Friday, April 26th, the day designated by President Wilson as Liberty day, will be celebrated in a fitting manner in this city. Mayor Charles L. Valentine has issued a proclamation asking the stores of the city to close at four o'clock in order to give the employees an opportunity of attending the celebration.

Starting with a monster parade at four o'clock in which the Boyer City band, the school children, the parents of the local boys in the service and a platoon from the Sixteenth Separate Company will participate, the celebration will begin. It is planned to conduct the parade upon the lines followed in the parade on Registration day last June.

Principals of the schools have been asked to have their children take the same places assigned them in the parade last June. The children should be in line at 3:45. It is requested that the companies that enter pupil soldiers in the march be given a small flag and each school unit should carry at its head the new Junior Red Cross banner. The fathers and mothers of the Jamesville soldiers will meet at the Y. M. C. A. and will march from that point to the court house park, where the patriotic exercises will be held.

An appeal is being made to the parents of the soldiers to be on hand tomorrow afternoon to participate in the parade. Janesville is going to honor the parents of the soldiers and it is urgently requested that all fathers and mothers of soldiers be on hand. Autos will be furnished those who are unable to walk.

After the parade a program will be given in the court house park just east of the court house. There will be singing of patriotic songs by the school children, the awarding of prizes for the Liberty loan essays and several short addresses. The honor flag which was recently won by the city in the Liberty loan campaign will be presented to the local committee. Prof. H. H. Frost will preside at the ceremony. The program follows:

Song by School children.

Prayer..... Rev. Pierson

Song—Combined high school choruses

Awarding of prizes for Liberty Loan Essays.

Awarding of Honor Flag.

Star Spangled Banner..... Audience and band

MONDAY RECOMMENDS THAT SCHOOLS CLOSE

Charles L. Valentine Issues Proclamation Recommending That Schools and Public Offices Close at Noon Tomorrow.

Mayor Charles L. Valentine has issued a proclamation recommending that the city schools, public offices and public offices close at noon tomorrow. He also recommends that the stores of the city close at four o'clock. The proclamation follows:

In accordance with the proclamation issued by President Wilson designating Friday, April 16th, as Liberty Day, and the proclamation issued by Governor Philipp, in regard to observing Liberty Day, I recommend that all schools, public institutions and public offices be closed at noon tomorrow and that all stores and business institutions close from four o'clock until six o'clock.

CHARLES L. VALENTINE, Mayor.

The Presbyterian Ladies of Group B will meet with Mrs. W. H. Blair, 15 North East street on Friday at 2:30 p.m.

Large assortment of attractive travel literature just received at Gazette Travel Bureau.

PERSONAL MENTION

Mrs. Harold Green and daughter, Dorothy and Betty, leave tomorrow for Washington, D. C. for a month's visit with her sister, Mrs. A. B. Cramer.

Mrs. Frances Boruzal of 903 Prospect avenue, has returned from a two weeks' visit in Madison. While in Madison she attended a number of university social functions.

Francis Murphy of Sioux City, Iowa is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Murphy of Dodge street, before leaving for Jefferson Barracks, Mo.

Miss Gladys Miller of 432 North Washington street entertained twelve members of the War Sewing society, who made quilts for the Belgian children. Light refreshments were served.

Mr. John Crowley of this city, and Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Crowley of Fond du Lac, have returned from Chicago, where they were called by the death of Mrs. Clifford Welsh. Mrs. Walsh is a niece of Mrs. Crowley of Ravine street.

Mrs. Gladys Miller of 432 North Washington street entertained the War Sewing society of Grant school, who are making quilts for the Belgian children.

Lieutenant Vincent Koch is now at Camp Jackson, Columbia, South Carolina, as chief orthopedic surgeon of the camp.

Miss George Salmon of this city has gone to Milton Junction, where she is spending the week at the home of her father, E. D. Vincent.

Mrs. Charles Olsen and son Fleck, of Academy street, are home from a visit this week with Mrs. Olsen's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Fleck, in Broehead.

Mrs. Lucy Corey Berens and daughter, Fannie are visiting relatives this week in Janesville. They are returning from Port Orange, Florida, where they spent the winter. They will visit in town for a few days before returning to their home in Wheaton, Minnesota.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Stevens of Madison, after a visit in town this week with their daughter, will return to Beloit, not Janesville, and will help to get the million dollar mark, and help set a mark that Beloit will have had a hard time to beat.

Very encouraging reports were received at loan headquarters, last evening from the county salesmen, with twelve $500 subscriptions. However, the country districts are not holding up so well as the towns, and the townships in this vicinity which is subscribing more than fifty per cent of its quota. This morning six cars left headquarters to canvass the towns of Harmony, Janesville and La Prairie. Tomorrow two cars will be sent out to finish the work.

Word has been received in this city that Wisconsin has already reached its quota and that it is the desire of the state committee to raise fifty per cent over the quota, and prove to the country that Wisconsin is loyal.

Total subscriptions for the townships in the vicinity of Janesville which have a combined quota of $1,000,000, have $800,000 on hand, with one day more to work. The farmers are doing much better work in this campaign than in the two previous ones, but they are not holding their own, and it is to the farmers that the county committee is making an appeal for them to do their bit as their city neighbors have done.

Miss Martha Spooner of Washington street is home from a visit of a week in Whitewater with friends.

Miss Marion Halston, from Rockford College, at Rockford, was a visitor in town this week.

Mrs. E. L. Skavlen and children of Beloit, who have been spending the winter at the home of Mrs. Noyseley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Lee of Forest Park boulevard, have returned home.

OUT OF TOWN VISITORS.

Mrs. William Dean of Avalon was the guest of relatives in town this week.

The Reverend and Mrs. R. G. Piereson of the Baptist church returned today from Milwaukee where they attended the annual meeting of Women's Foreign and Woman's Home Missionary societies held there the 23rd and 24th of April.

Mrs. Clem Farnum of North High street will be the guest of Chippewa friends for a week, has returned home.

Miss Martha Spooner of Washington street is home from a visit of a week in Whitewater with friends.

Miss Marion Halston, from Rockford College, at Rockford, was a visitor in town this week.

Mrs. E. L. Skavlen and children of Beloit, who have been spending the winter at the home of Mrs. Noyseley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Lee of Forest Park boulevard, have returned home.

LIBERTY DAY WILL BE OBSERVED HERE

MONSTER PARADE FOLLOWED BY EXERCISES IN COURT HOUSE PARK PROGRAM FOR LIBERTY DAY.

Friday, April 26th, the day designated by President Wilson as Liberty day, will be celebrated in a fitting manner in this city. Mayor Charles L. Valentine has issued a proclamation asking the stores of the city to close at four o'clock in order to give the employees an opportunity of attending the celebration.

Starting with a monster parade at four o'clock in which the Boyer City band, the school children, the parents of the local boys in the service and a platoon from the Sixteenth Separate Company will participate, the celebration will begin. It is planned to conduct the parade upon the lines followed in the parade on Registration day last June.

Principals of the schools have been asked to have their children take the same places assigned them in the parade last June. The children should be in line at 3:45. It is requested that the companies that enter pupil soldiers in the march be given a small flag and each school unit should carry at its head the new Junior Red Cross banner.

The fathers and mothers of the Jamesville soldiers will meet at the Y. M. C. A. and will march from that point to the court house park, where the patriotic exercises will be held.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Damrow of Hanover were Janevilles visitors a few days ago.

SOCIAL.

Miss Marjorie Mount of Hickory street entertained the Young and Knitting club at their afternoon meeting at 4:30 o'clock.

The Milwaukee Avenue club met for work this afternoon at the home of Mrs. George Breese. They spent the time making infants' layettes and children's clothes which will be sent to France. A light lunch was served during the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Martin and son, Mr. and Mrs. Wilkins, Mrs. Racine and Miss Minnie Latton made up a party from Beloit and visited the new Junior Red Cross banner.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Borchard and daughter Edith of Montello, who have been guests at the William Funk home on Milton avenue, have returned.

Meatmen W. L. Karney and D. E. Borchard of Beloit have returned after a short visit with Janesville friends.

Miss Martha Spooner of Washington street is home from a visit of a week in Whitewater with friends.

Miss Marion Halston, from Rockford College, at Rockford, was a visitor in town this week.

COLLEGE HEADS GATHER IN SESSION AT TACOMA
BY INTERNATIONAL NEWS.
Tacoma, Wash., April 25.—The conference of college and university heads of northwest institutions opened here today for a three-day session. One of the chief topics to be considered will be the educational needs of national army men western contestants.

Millinery Bargains

A number of very good bargains left in trimmed and untrimmed hats—all must be sold.

Ladies' Untrimmed Hats

$1.25 HATS NOW 90c	$2.25 HATS NOW $1.79	$2.00 HATS NOW $1.48
---------------------------	------------------------------	------------------------------

Ladies' Trimmed Hats

$1.35 HATS NOW 98c	$3.00 HATS NOW $2.48	$2.75 HATS NOW $2.39
---------------------------	------------------------------	------------------------------

Every woman who has attended this sale has pronounced these hats to be "real bargains."

F. J. HINTERSCHIED
Department Store
23-25 W. Milw. St.

Simpson's • GARMENT STORE •

Janesville's Most Exclusive Garment Store

Special Suit Offering Friday and Saturday

A Very Special Lot $23.50

Tailored Suits are in great demand with their graceful and simple lines.
Whether you choose a pony coat, an eton jacket, a modified Russian blouse or a simple tailored suit, you'll get just the suit you desire in this showing. Spring demands a light-weight garment and tailored suits fill the requirement. The acceptable materials are Serge, Tricotine, Poplins, Jerseys and Gaber-dines. Navy, Tan and Grey are the favorite shades.

Nobby Georgette Blouses Specially Priced, $6.00

Every woman delights in pretty blouses and feels the need of having several.
This week we have received numbers of these dainty blouses so essential to the suits, separate skirts and sleeveless jackets. Hand embroidered designs, novel collar effects and other nobby effects are features of these new waists.
Shown in a wide variety of colors.

AMUSEMENTS

(Notices furnished by the theatres.)

MYERS THEATRE

"Oh, Boy."

F. Ray Comstock and William Elliott announced "Oh, Boy" as the coming attraction at the Myers Theatre tomorrow night. "Oh, Boy" is a typical boyishness. Theatrical musical comedy and is the fourth of the series of musical comedies to see the light of day at this famous musical comedy producing house.

Messrs. Comstock and Elliott, who are responsible for "Oh, Boy," have organized a special company of young actors and actresses, selected a cast of players, all of whom are local favorites, including Juanita Fletcher, Eva Olivetti, Harry Meyers, Charles Knowlton, T. D. Leary, W. Fredericks, Anna Little, Helen DuBois, James E. Rome, Alfran Hibbing, Bobby Hale, Laura Wells and a chorus of boys and girls all in the springtime of youth.

Brodhead News

Patriotic Meeting.

Brodhead, April 24.—A patriotic meeting was held in the Poplar Grove school house in Spring Grove Tuesday evening, at which T. H. Levin was the speaker. Mr. Levin gave a stirring address which was full of enthusiasm, strength, loyalty and unrevealing patriotism of the speaker. He is a strong speaker and carries his audience with him by presenting facts which cannot be successfully disputed. After the address a chapter of the Wisconsin Loyalty Legion was organized with the following officers at the head: President, J. C. Lohr; vice president, Nadeau; Douglas, secretary; C. E. Young, treasurer; F. E. Goldren.

There are several cases of measles and mumps about the city.

Mrs. F. L. Stone, who was the guest of Mrs. C. P. Mooney, left for Milwaukee Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Smiley of Alton were here Tuesday and left for Chicago.

Mrs. G. W. Agnew was a visitor in Janesville Tuesday.

Rev. Hoffman returned from conference Tuesday and is to be stationed in Brodhead for the ensuing year.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Miller left for Valley, Nev., Tuesday, where they expect to remain some months.

Mrs. E. M. Latham left for Neosho, Mo., Tuesday.

Mrs. F. W. Kilwine is reported as being very ill.

The class of 1918 of the Brodhead high school will give two plays at the opera house on the evening of Friday, May 5, entitled "Orwin to Maggie" and "My Cousin Timmi." Rehearsals have been going on for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Stephens are planning to move to Rockford.

There are four places to be filled in the teaching force of the Brodhead high school.

Mrs. and Mrs. John C. Timmi were visitors in Albany Tuesday.

SHARON

Sharon, April 24.—Mrs. W. C. Heldreich and children are out after being quarantined for the past four weeks with the scarlet fever.

Mrs. Charles Bescock of Beloit, is visiting her mother, Mrs. J. Goelzer, for a few days.

A large crowd attended the O. E. S. on Tuesday evening. Two candidates were taken into the chapter and after chapter closed light refreshments were served. It was voted to organize a chapter in surgical dressings and Mrs. Ethel Jones was elected to go to Janesville and take instructions in the work, so as to be able to instruct the members of the class.

Mrs. A. D. Lowell returned home Tuesday from a five weeks' stay in Madison with her daughter and family. She was accompanied home by Mr. Lowell, who has been visiting them since Saturday.

The W. C. T. U. met on Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Susan Robbins.

Miss Maud Blodgett was called to Freeport Tuesday to attend the funeral of a relative.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Underhill spent Tuesday and Wednesday with relatives in Harvard.

Mrs. Clara Arnold and daughter, Mrs. J. Stevens, and her two sons of Chicago, went to Shoreline Tuesday and spent the day with the former's sister.

Mrs. Sarah Scott was called to Delavan Tuesday by the death of Mrs. Harvey Smith.

The funeral services of Jacob Bolinger, who died on Saturday, were held in the Lutheran church on Wednesday afternoon. Rev. W. C. Heidenreich officiating, and his six sons acted as pallbearers. He was born in Switzerland in 1832 and came to America when nineteen years of age, and with the exception of a few years spent at Madison, had always made his home in Walworth county, where he married to Catherine Bailey in 1858, who predeceased him in death about four years ago. To them were born eight children, two daughters and six sons, one daughter dying in infancy. With the exception of the son, George, who lives in Seaford, Minn., the children reside in and around Sharon.

The Gazette is for sale in Sharon by Lyle Burton. Deliveries will be made to your home if desired.

AVALON

Avalon, April 24.—There will be a dancing party at the hall on Friday evening, April 26, for the benefit of the Red Cross. Cancer orchestra of Janesville will furnish the music. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

W. A. Dodge has been entertaining the German measles.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Jones of Beloit were Sunday guests of the latter's sister, Mrs. Herman Plewke, in Shoreline, spending the weekend with his mother in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles McCarthy attended the funeral of George Wilkins at Allens Grove Monday afternoon.

Walter Plewke of Beloit spent Sunday with his parents here.

About 300 attended the patriotic meeting at the hall on Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Kommer of Clinton were callers Monday evening at the home of their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Bunker.

Mrs. E. H. Ransom and daughters, Ethel and Beulah, Margaret Irish and Katherine Boynton of Janesville were callers Tuesday evening at the E. H. Ransom farm.

No German Players.

Milwaukee, April 25.—German

plays will be conspicuous by their absence.

sence at the Pabst theatre next season. The playhouse was devoted almost exclusively to the production of plays in the German language, but now that sort of thing is "passed."

CONVENTION SEASON IN CLEVELAND OPENS TODAY WITH TWO-DAY SESSION

BY INTERNATIONAL NEWS.

Cleveland, O., April 25.—Scores of iron and bronze manufacturers from all parts of the United States are here attending their national convention which opened today for a two-day session.

This meeting officially opens Cleveland's convention season, which promises to establish a record. During May the city will entertain about twenty important conventions, according to the chamber of commerce.

Patriotic Candies

That You May Eat and Still Be Patriotic

Hard center chocolates, mints, candies of all kinds, hard boiled candies, marshmallows.

We have a wide variety of these delicious war confections at all times.

RAZOOK'S

The House of Purity

MYERS

FRIDAY, APRIL 26th

The Most Brilliant Musical Event of the Season.

PRICES: First 12 rows orchestra, $2.00; balcony, $1.50; first 4 rows balcony, $1.00; balcony, 75¢; gallery, 50¢.

Seats now on sale.

The Comstock-Elliott Co.
Presents

THE SMARTEST
AND BRIGHTEST OF ALL MUSICAL COMEDIES

"Oh, Boy"

By Guy Bolton and
P. G. Wodehouse.

Music by Jerome Kern Jolly Tunes and Pretty Girls.

The 4th Princess Theatre
(New York) Musical Comedy Success.

MAJESTIC

TODAY AND FRIDAY

Greater Vitagraph

ALBERT E. SMITH
Presents

Nell Shipman
With

ALFRED WHITMAN
—IN—

THE WILD STRAIN

The story of a regular American girl who rebelled against family autocracy and gave vent to the reckless sport inherited from a bandit ancestor.

Blue Ribbon Feature

Special For Saturday
ESSANAY
Perfection Picture

Jack Gardner
—IN—

Men of the Desert

a thrilling drama of the Great Out of Doors.

Universal's Greatest Serial Starts May 4th,
"The Bull's Eye."

BEVERLY

SPECIAL FOR TODAY

The Celebrated Child
Actress

Little Zoe Rae
—IN—

'The Magic Eye' USUAL COMEDY
TODAY

No Advance in Prices.

FRIDAY
Paramount Program.
One Day Only

Dorothy Dalton
In Her Latest Paramount Production,

"Flare Up Sal"
And Other Features.

SATURDAY

Madge Evans
—IN—

"Wanted, A Mother"
And Other Features.

Apollo

Matinee daily 2:30.
Evening 7:30 and 9:00.

TONIGHT

Friday, Saturday & Sunday FEATURE VAUDEVILLE

Fiecht Tyroleans Singing, Dancing and Yodeling
6—People—6

Francis & Wilson
Bits of Everything.

Musical Walsh
The Musical Cook.

Milton & Rich
Those Comedy Girls.

SPECIAL FRIDAY: "The Eagle's Eye", that great picture showing how the German System works in this country, in addition to the above program.

Matinees, 11c.
Evenings, 11c and 22c.

APOLLO

Matinee daily 2:30.
Evening 7:30 and 9:00.

COMING

The Brooks Stock Co.

14 PEOPLE.

Headed by Miss Maude Tomlinson.

OPENING PLAY

"In Walked Jimmie"

A Comedy With A Serious Purpose.

Vaudeville Between Acts

All Special Scenery and Effects.

Heart and Home Problems

BY ELIZABETH THOMPSON

LETTERS MAY BE ADDRESSED TO MRS. THOMPSON, IN CARE OF THE GAZETTE

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a girl sixteen years old and I am married to a young soldier. My mother opposed our marriage and so we went to another town and were married secretly.

My mother has not forgiven me for what I have done, and my home is very unpleasant. My husband's mother has invited me to live with her. She is a widow and I like her very much. My own mother objects to my leaving home, and so I don't know what to do. You would be in doubt.

If you and your own mother can come to an understanding so that your home will be pleasant, I would advise you to spend most of your time with her, and probably get along more comfortably than you and your mother-in-law would if you were together all the time.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: What do you think of a girl who rides around with a married man? My husband has a mustache and he drives to work in a motor car. This girl works in the same place who was at the corner for him to pass. I have asked him not to take her, but he refuses to do as I wish. He says that it is all right for him to take her and that he has told her to wait for him. I know that I would not ride with somebody else's husband.

WORRIED.

I think it is very kind of your husband to take the girl to work. You have no cause to worry, because if he

HEALTH TALKS

BY WILLIAM BRADY, M. D.

LETTERS MAY BE ADDRESSED TO DR. BRADY, IN CARE OF THE GAZETTE

ALL THAT WHEEZES

"Last June," writes a correspondent, "the doctor told me I had valvular heart trouble. It had been present for years and I was unaware of it. Blood pressure nearly normal. I can hold my breath only 20 seconds. I have what I call bronchial asthma, have been subject to it more or less constantly for years. Bringing a bucket of coal upstairs sets me wheezing.

A great many people who imagine they have asthma, have no asthma at all. We haven't examined the correspondent, of course, but his description does not tally with that of bronchial asthma. In bronchial (or spasmodic) asthma the difficulty of breathing is not constant, but comes only in spells starting from a few hours to a few days, with intervals of complete freedom.

What the correspondent describes is rather the dyspnoea, or difficult breathing, of impaired circulation. He probably has a dilated heart; that state which doctors call "loss of compensation." That is, for years since the heart valves became incompetent, the heart has been doing overwork; it has been pumping at each beat more blood through the body than depends, the excess being pumped out to compensate for the quantity that leaks back through the damaged valve at each beat. The valve, you might say is inundated with carbon; it has been distorted by the scar formation following some past infection and inflammation.

While the heart muscle has been able to compensate for the leakage through hyperemia, or overcirculation, the heart muscle is strained, and the man remains, as he says, aware of his trouble. But being unaware of his handicap the man has perhaps not taken the precaution he otherwise might have taken to avoid excesses of strain, and so the overtrained muscle has "gone stale." The overtrained muscle is less elastic, under the strain, the heart is dilated. Therefore, the heart no longer pumps the blood through the lungs as efficiently as it should, and hence the shortness of breath, especially on exertion.

Is there a remedy? Certainly. Absolute rest in bed or reclining chair; perhaps the Karel or other limited

Her Great Adventure

by ZOE BUCKLEY

THE BURDEN IS SHIFTED. When they were seated in the exquisitely furnished and lighted dining room and leaves, with all his old clothes and manner had ordered the dinner and a taste of delicate, light wine without consulting Claire, she leaned an elbow on the table, set her chin in his hand and regarded him with a level gaze.

"Now, tell me," he said, "if by love, as you as I do and waiting it necessary, as I shall know how you may sometimes search for happiness by walking into my heart. Claire, it's been waiting for you a long time—ever since that morning when you first came to New York. I looked into your face across that roofed dining room."

She could have cried out in her pain. So that afternoon WAS his question. She did not answer, not because she could be no more putting off at the interruption. Her words came in a husky whisper, and even that answer was a mighty effort. She leaned down, miserably, onto the sofa, clutching, making little marks of agony with her finger nail.

It seemed as if he would never release her. The silence oppressed her. She looked into his face, Reaves was as if he did not see her, as if his thoughts were upon something far away, and the sound of his words created only faint reflection of something more painful and terrible.

"John—" she spoke his name softly, timidly; she had not used it since childhood; she had not used it since childhood.

"He? He has got to take his hard knocks like any other man!" There was a ring to Reaves' voice as he said this. It was the new Reaves who spoke, not the self-sacrificing Reaves of the old days. He would not want you to marry him if he knew about me."

Claire raised her eyes questioningly. "You about me?" repeated Reaves. "He may know you are not in love with him, but he doesn't know you love ME! For you do, Claire, I'll swear it by the Almighty God!"

Claire's eyes dropped. She could not speak. Reaves went on. "A man who's a real man wouldn't permit such sacrifice. He'd know he wouldn't gain anything by it. He

EVERDAY ETIQUETTE

TALES OF THE FOREST

SIDE TALKS

—BY—RUTH CAMERON

ONE MORE THING TO DUST.

The most fascinating tale came to bat it the instinct to be free,—even me recently of a woman who went abroad with one steamer trunk, and in that steamer trunk were absolutely all her possessions!

She didn't have a lot of furniture in a storeroom in some warehouse, nor even a trunkful of clothes and letters and memorabilia in some one's garret. She had given away, destroyed or sold every thing she possessed!

Philips She Regretted Some Things.

Without, she lived to regret some of those things. There must have been books she wanted to consult, clothes she could have used, and household goods that she could not replace when she started in to travel.

But with a blessed sensation of freedom from the tyranny of things, she must have felt at the time!

We Want to be Free, Even From Possessions.

But now and then arises, to coma dry, roomy hut. Blah watched him ask me that. Well get in,—ah,—we'll get in!"

"Just then a large branch fell from its lashings, leaving a hole in the side of the hut. Club turned triumphantly to Blah.

"There," he said. "That is how we'll get in. Now sit still and don't ask foolish questions."

True Euphemistic.

"Just what is meant by a euphemism?" "I'll explain," said the erudite person. "When a widow who has been married three or four times ropes in another man it is announced that she was led to the altar."

"Exactly." "That phrase, 'led to the altar,' is a euphemism"—Birmingham Age-Eagle.

The Winner.

Perseverance always wins in the long run—usually in a walk.—Youth's Companion.

Tales of the Friendly Forest

BY DAVID CORY

that they went to bed, and when they woke up they heard the little sparrow singing on the front porch:

Sing a song of summer,
And the happy flowers,
Sing a song of sunshine
Through the golden hours.

Always sing of gladness
Through the live-long year,
Even in December,
When it's cold and drear.

"I'm going to take some crumbs out to that cheerful little birds," said Uncle Glub, and he crumpled up a lovely sponge cake and sprinkled the crumbs all over the porch, and the sparrow and her little birds had a sumptuous feast.

And after that the telephone rang and Mrs. Bunny said she had to find out who it was. And when Uncle Glub said he was very well she said she was glad, because if he had been sick she would have wanted him brought home to me-diate. But as long as he wasn't she wanted him back anyway, because she was so lonely without him. And then of course the telephone bell rang good-by to the old birdie. Uncle Glub said, "I'll just go down the road and start right off for the old Birder Patch."

"Well, sir! He hadn't gone for more than a million hops, and maybe a few skips and jumps when he came across his old friend the Brown Horse." "Hello, to the right," said the good-natured animal. "How's your bunny Hughes?" "Fine, right," said the little cub. "But what are you doing here in the woods?" "Nothing," whispered the Brown Horse. "I'll eat away today and I'm afraid the policeman will catch me for exceeding the speed limit. So I'll hide here." And just then they heard a whistle, and you'll have to wait and find out whether it's a meadowlark or a locomotive engine until the next story, for I've no more room in this box.

Sell your real estate through the Gazette classified ads. The cost is small and the results great.

Household Hints

MENU HINT.

Breakfast.
Baked Maple Apples.
Creamed Toast from Bread (Wheat and Oatmeal).
Luncheon.
Cottage Cheese Salad.
Brown Bread Sandwiches.
Hot Ginger Bread.
Dinner.
Clam Soup.
Veal Loaf. Brown Gravy.
Escalloped Potatoes. Carrots.
Steamed Fruit Pudding.

BREADS.

Mixed Bread—One cup cornmeal, two cups rye flour, one cup graham flour, one teaspoon salt. Mix well dry ingredients and reserve a little to dredge one-third pound raisins. Then add one and one-half cups sour milk, one-half cup sugar or molasses and one teaspoon baking soda dissolved in a little boiling water. Bake one hour in a six-inch pan. Makes two loaves in one-pound coffee cans.

Cornbread (yeast raised)—Soak four cups cornmeal; when about lukewarm add one-half cup sugar, one tablespoon shortening, one teaspoon salt, two cups salt-rising sponge (yeast sponge will do). Add flour enough to make good batter. Let rise until light; add enough white flour to make rather soft dough. Put in the oven till very light. Bake one hour.

Wheatless Bread—One pint cornmeal, one pint rolled oats, one-half pint rye or barley flour, three-quarters cup brown sugar (or white), one egg, one teaspoon salt, one tablespoon shortening, four teaspoons baking powder, (level), one teaspoon vinegar, one cup milk, water, one cup raw prunes stoned and ground with coarse knife or food chopper. Roll liquid, pour over rolled oats, cover, let stand until cold. Mix all to a very stiff batter, using more liquid if needed. Bake about one hour in moderately hot oven. Makes one large loaf.

THE TABLE.

Potato Pancakes—Peel six large potatoes, wash and grate and two eggs, tablespoon salt and two tablespoons flour. Stir well and bake in a hot pan with plenty of lard. This recipe is enough for four persons.

Bread Rolls—Cut stale bread in dice and sprinkle with milk; let stand one hour. Fry small onion in butter and lard, add bread, parsley, pepper and salt; fry this and stir so it does not burn; add one egg with little milk from bread. Fry a little longer; then make balls and drop in broth.

Grape Foam Drink—Grape foam which consists simply of the white of one egg beaten stiff and added to two tablespoons grape juice, is a delightful drink for invalids. It will quench the thirst of fever and prove nutritive. Orange albumin is prepared the same way using orange instead of grape juice.

Lettuce Dressing—An appetizing dressing for lettuce or other salads is made with one egg, two tablespoons butter, one teaspoon sugar, two tablespoons cornstarch, one tablespoon oil, mustard, one-half teaspoon salt, a little white pepper, one-half teaspoon cider vinegar, one teaspoon Worcestershire sauce. Stir ingredients together, using boiling water for thinning to make the right consistency for sauce. The above quantity will serve three or four persons for a week or more. Quite inexpensive.

New War Cake—One cup brown sugar, one tablespoon lard, split-pea, two eggs, one and one-half cups three-quarters cup water, one-half cup wheat flour, one-half cup rice flour, one-half cup potato flour, one-half teaspoon cinnamon, one-half teaspoon cloves, one-half teaspoon allspice or any other spices which you may have. Melt sugar, stir in shortening, beat in eggs. Add water, then all the flours, baking powder and spices. Bake in moderate oven. Cover with white icing.

And remember—Troco contains no animal oils of any kind whatsoever, nor any preservatives.

Troco is made only from rich vegetable fats and pasteurized milk by a company which makes no animal oil products. Old laws, made before Troco was invented, require the name "oleomargarine" on the label.

Your dealer can get Troco for you on short notice—we fill orders promptly. Insist on Troco if you enjoy fine butter—it solves your butter problems. Your dealer will give you a capsule of the same vegetable coloring butter makers use.

Troco Nut Butter Company

Milwaukee, Wisconsin

The Shurtleff Co., Distributors,

Janesville, Wis.

Tales of the Friendly Forest

BY DAVID CORY

You remember in the last story that the Circus Elephant gave Uncle Glub and Billy Bunny tickets to go to the show. Well, I'm awfully sorry to tell you they didn't go, and the reason is because the Circus Elephant in Bannington could put out the flames the spangles were all burned off of the circus queen's dress and the ice cream cones were all melted and the peanut roasts blacker than a coal, and the lemonade boiled over and the lime juice splattered on his head. And, oh, dear me! The circus folk all had to sleep with the animals, and the fat lady couldn't get into the monkey cage, so she had to lie down on the grass underneath for the night, and she caught an awful cold and almost had the chicken pox.

Of course Billy Bunny and his good friend the Brown Horse, "Hello, to the right," said the good-natured animal, "fine, right," said the little cub. "But what are you doing here in the woods?"

"I'm going to take some crumbs out to that cheerful little birds," said Uncle Glub, and he crumpled up a lovely sponge cake and sprinkled the crumbs all over the porch, and the sparrow and her little birds had a sumptuous feast.

And after that the telephone rang and Mrs. Bunny said she had to find out who it was. And when Uncle Glub said he was very well she said she was glad, because if he had been sick she would have wanted him brought home to me-diate. But as long as he wasn't she wanted him back anyway, because she was so lonely without him. And then of course the telephone bell rang good-by to the old birdie. Uncle Glub said, "I'll just go down the road and start right off for the old Birder Patch."

"Well, sir! He hadn't gone for more than a million hops, and maybe a few skips and jumps when he came across his old friend the Brown Horse." "Hello, to the right," said the good-natured animal. "How's your bunny Hughes?" "Fine, right," said the little cub. "But what are you doing here in the woods?"

"I'm going to take some crumbs out to that cheerful little birds," said Uncle Glub, and he crumpled up a lovely sponge cake and sprinkled the crumbs all over the porch, and the sparrow and her little birds had a sumptuous feast.

And after that the telephone rang and Mrs. Bunny said she had to find out who it was. And when Uncle Glub said he was very well she said she was glad, because if he had been sick she would have wanted him brought home to me-diate. But as long as he wasn't she wanted him back anyway, because she was so lonely without him. And then of course the telephone bell rang good-by to the old birdie. Uncle Glub said, "I'll just go down the road and start right off for the old Birder Patch."

"Well, sir! He hadn't gone for more than a million hops, and maybe a few skips and jumps when he came across his old friend the Brown Horse." "Hello, to the right," said the good-natured animal. "How's your bunny Hughes?" "Fine, right," said the little cub. "But what are you doing here in the woods?"

"I'm going to take some crumbs out to that cheerful little birds," said Uncle Glub, and he crumpled up a lovely sponge cake and sprinkled the crumbs all over the porch, and the sparrow and her little birds had a sumptuous feast.

"I'm going to take some crumbs out to that cheerful little birds," said Uncle Glub, and he crumpled up a lovely sponge cake and sprinkled the crumbs all over the porch, and the sparrow and her little birds had a sumptuous feast.

"I'm going to take some crumbs out to that cheerful little birds," said Uncle Glub, and he crumpled up a lovely sponge cake and sprinkled the crumbs all over the porch, and the sparrow and her little birds had a sumptuous feast.

"I'm going to take some crumbs out to that cheerful little birds," said Uncle Glub, and he crumpled up a lovely sponge cake and sprinkled the crumbs all over the porch, and the sparrow and her little birds had a sumptuous feast.

"I'm going to take some crumbs out to that cheerful little birds," said Uncle Glub, and he crumpled up a lovely sponge cake and sprinkled the crumbs all over the porch, and the sparrow and her little birds had a sumptuous feast.

"I'm going to take some crumbs out to that cheerful little birds," said Uncle Glub, and he crumpled up a lovely sponge cake and sprinkled the crumbs all over the porch, and the sparrow and her little birds had a sumptuous feast.

"I'm going to take some crumbs out to that cheerful little birds," said Uncle Glub, and he crumpled up a lovely sponge cake and sprinkled the crumbs all over the porch, and the sparrow and her little birds had a sumptuous feast.

"I'm going to take some crumbs out to that cheerful little birds," said Uncle Glub, and he crumpled up a lovely sponge cake and sprinkled the crumbs all over the porch, and the sparrow and her little birds had a sumptuous feast.

"I'm going to take some crumbs out to that cheerful little birds," said Uncle Glub, and he crumpled up a lovely sponge cake and sprinkled the crumbs all over the porch, and the sparrow and her little birds had a sumptuous feast.

"I'm going to take some crumbs out to that cheerful little birds," said Uncle Glub, and he crumpled up a lovely sponge cake and sprinkled the crumbs all over the porch, and the sparrow and her little birds had a sumptuous feast.

"I'm going to take some crumbs out to that cheerful little birds," said Uncle Glub, and he crumpled up a lovely sponge cake and sprinkled the crumbs all over the porch, and the sparrow and her little birds had a sumptuous feast.

"I'm going to take some crumbs out to that cheerful little birds,"

PETEY DINK—HAVE SOME NICE LARGE APPLES BY JUNE

RAINBOW'S END

A NOVEL

By REX BREACH

Author of
"The Iron Trail," "The Spoiled,"
"Heart of the Sun," etc.

Copyright by Harper and Brothers

"So," examined the colonel, "Well, why not? So long as we do not know precisely what has happened to her, we can at least hope. But, if I were you, I would rather think of her dead than as a prisoner in some concentration camp. You don't know what these camps are like, my friend, but I do. Now I shall leave you. One needs to be alone at such an hour?" With a pressure of his hand, Colonel Lopez walked away into the darkness.

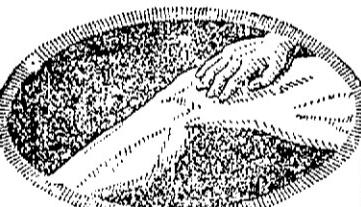

Judson had his adventurous countryman did not see O'Reilly that night, nor, in fact, did anyone. But the next morning he appeared before General Gomez. He was haggard, sick, listless. The old Porto Rican had heard from Lopez in the meantime; he was

Stop Itching Eczema

Never mind how often you have tried and failed, you can stop burning, itching eczema quickly by applying a little zinc furnished by any drug-store for 35c. Extra large bottle, $1.00. Healing begins the moment zinc is applied. In short time usually every trace of eczema, tetter, pimples, rash, blackheads and similar skin diseases will be removed. For clearing the skin and making it vigorously healthy, always use zinc, the penetrating, antiseptic liquid. It is not a greasy salve and it does not stain. When others fail it is the one dependable treatment for skin-troubles of all kinds.

The L. W. Kress Co., Cleveland, O.

Rheumatic Aches

Drive them out with Sloan's Liniment, the quick-acting, soothing liniment that penetrates without rubbing and relieves the pain. So much cleaner than rousy plasters or ointments; it does not stain the skin or clog the pores. Always have a bottle in the house for the aches and pains of rheumatism, gout, lumbago, strains, sprains, stiff joints and all muscle soreness.

Sloan's price is 50c at all druggists.

Beauty is a Blessing to every woman, but good health is vitally important.

Attention to liver, kidneys and bowels will improve beauty and health.

Beecham's Pills

are a boon to women, because they regulate the functions of all these organs without any irritation or disagreeable effects.

Largest Sale of Any Medicine in the World.
Sold everywhere. In boxes, 10c, 25c.

Petey Dink—Have Some Nice Large Apples by June

Largest Sale of Any Medicine in the World.
Sold everywhere. In boxes, 10c, 25c.

sympathetic.

"I am sorry you came all the way to hear such bad news," he said. "War is a sad, hopeless business."

"But I haven't given up hope," O'Reilly said. "I want to stay here and—and fight!"

"I inferred as much from what Lopez told me." The general nodded his white head. "Well, you'll make good soldier, and we shall be glad to have you." He extended his hand, and O'Reilly took it gratefully.

The city of Matanzas was "pacified." So ran the boastful band of the captain general. And this was no exaggeration, as anyone could see from the number of beggars there. Of all his military operations, this "pacification" of the western towns and provinces was the most conspicuously successful and the one which gave Valeriano Weyler the keenest satisfaction; for nowhere did the rebellion lift its head—except, perhaps, among the ranks of those disaffected men who hid in the hills, with nothing above them but the open sky. As for the population at large, it was cured of reason! It no longer resisted, even weakly, the pressure of his hand. Colonel Lopez walked away into the darkness.

Judson had his adventurous countryman did not see O'Reilly that night, nor, in fact, did anyone. But the next morning he appeared before General Gomez. He was haggard, sick, listless. The old Porto Rican had heard from Lopez in the meantime; he was

judging Weyler the keenest satisfaction; for nowhere did the rebellion lift its head—except, perhaps, among the ranks of those disaffected men who hid in the hills, with nothing above them but the open sky. As for the population at large, it was cured of reason! It no longer resisted, even weakly, the pressure of his hand. Colonel Lopez walked away into the darkness.

Judson had his adventurous countryman did not see O'Reilly that night, nor, in fact, did anyone. But the next morning he appeared before General Gomez. He was haggard, sick, listless. The old Porto Rican had heard from Lopez in the meantime; he was

judging Weyler the keenest satisfaction; for nowhere did the rebellion lift its head—except, perhaps, among the ranks of those disaffected men who hid in the hills, with nothing above them but the open sky. As for the population at large, it was cured of reason! It no longer resisted, even weakly, the pressure of his hand. Colonel Lopez walked away into the darkness.

Judson had his adventurous countryman did not see O'Reilly that night, nor, in fact, did anyone. But the next morning he appeared before General Gomez. He was haggard, sick, listless. The old Porto Rican had heard from Lopez in the meantime; he was

judging Weyler the keenest satisfaction; for nowhere did the rebellion lift its head—except, perhaps, among the ranks of those disaffected men who hid in the hills, with nothing above them but the open sky. As for the population at large, it was cured of reason! It no longer resisted, even weakly, the pressure of his hand. Colonel Lopez walked away into the darkness.

Judson had his adventurous countryman did not see O'Reilly that night, nor, in fact, did anyone. But the next morning he appeared before General Gomez. He was haggard, sick, listless. The old Porto Rican had heard from Lopez in the meantime; he was

judging Weyler the keenest satisfaction; for nowhere did the rebellion lift its head—except, perhaps, among the ranks of those disaffected men who hid in the hills, with nothing above them but the open sky. As for the population at large, it was cured of reason! It no longer resisted, even weakly, the pressure of his hand. Colonel Lopez walked away into the darkness.

Judson had his adventurous countryman did not see O'Reilly that night, nor, in fact, did anyone. But the next morning he appeared before General Gomez. He was haggard, sick, listless. The old Porto Rican had heard from Lopez in the meantime; he was

judging Weyler the keenest satisfaction; for nowhere did the rebellion lift its head—except, perhaps, among the ranks of those disaffected men who hid in the hills, with nothing above them but the open sky. As for the population at large, it was cured of reason! It no longer resisted, even weakly, the pressure of his hand. Colonel Lopez walked away into the darkness.

Judson had his adventurous countryman did not see O'Reilly that night, nor, in fact, did anyone. But the next morning he appeared before General Gomez. He was haggard, sick, listless. The old Porto Rican had heard from Lopez in the meantime; he was

judging Weyler the keenest satisfaction; for nowhere did the rebellion lift its head—except, perhaps, among the ranks of those disaffected men who hid in the hills, with nothing above them but the open sky. As for the population at large, it was cured of reason! It no longer resisted, even weakly, the pressure of his hand. Colonel Lopez walked away into the darkness.

Judson had his adventurous countryman did not see O'Reilly that night, nor, in fact, did anyone. But the next morning he appeared before General Gomez. He was haggard, sick, listless. The old Porto Rican had heard from Lopez in the meantime; he was

judging Weyler the keenest satisfaction; for nowhere did the rebellion lift its head—except, perhaps, among the ranks of those disaffected men who hid in the hills, with nothing above them but the open sky. As for the population at large, it was cured of reason! It no longer resisted, even weakly, the pressure of his hand. Colonel Lopez walked away into the darkness.

Judson had his adventurous countryman did not see O'Reilly that night, nor, in fact, did anyone. But the next morning he appeared before General Gomez. He was haggard, sick, listless. The old Porto Rican had heard from Lopez in the meantime; he was

judging Weyler the keenest satisfaction; for nowhere did the rebellion lift its head—except, perhaps, among the ranks of those disaffected men who hid in the hills, with nothing above them but the open sky. As for the population at large, it was cured of reason! It no longer resisted, even weakly, the pressure of his hand. Colonel Lopez walked away into the darkness.

Judson had his adventurous countryman did not see O'Reilly that night, nor, in fact, did anyone. But the next morning he appeared before General Gomez. He was haggard, sick, listless. The old Porto Rican had heard from Lopez in the meantime; he was

judging Weyler the keenest satisfaction; for nowhere did the rebellion lift its head—except, perhaps, among the ranks of those disaffected men who hid in the hills, with nothing above them but the open sky. As for the population at large, it was cured of reason! It no longer resisted, even weakly, the pressure of his hand. Colonel Lopez walked away into the darkness.

Judson had his adventurous countryman did not see O'Reilly that night, nor, in fact, did anyone. But the next morning he appeared before General Gomez. He was haggard, sick, listless. The old Porto Rican had heard from Lopez in the meantime; he was

judging Weyler the keenest satisfaction; for nowhere did the rebellion lift its head—except, perhaps, among the ranks of those disaffected men who hid in the hills, with nothing above them but the open sky. As for the population at large, it was cured of reason! It no longer resisted, even weakly, the pressure of his hand. Colonel Lopez walked away into the darkness.

Judson had his adventurous countryman did not see O'Reilly that night, nor, in fact, did anyone. But the next morning he appeared before General Gomez. He was haggard, sick, listless. The old Porto Rican had heard from Lopez in the meantime; he was

judging Weyler the keenest satisfaction; for nowhere did the rebellion lift its head—except, perhaps, among the ranks of those disaffected men who hid in the hills, with nothing above them but the open sky. As for the population at large, it was cured of reason! It no longer resisted, even weakly, the pressure of his hand. Colonel Lopez walked away into the darkness.

Judson had his adventurous countryman did not see O'Reilly that night, nor, in fact, did anyone. But the next morning he appeared before General Gomez. He was haggard, sick, listless. The old Porto Rican had heard from Lopez in the meantime; he was

judging Weyler the keenest satisfaction; for nowhere did the rebellion lift its head—except, perhaps, among the ranks of those disaffected men who hid in the hills, with nothing above them but the open sky. As for the population at large, it was cured of reason! It no longer resisted, even weakly, the pressure of his hand. Colonel Lopez walked away into the darkness.

Judson had his adventurous countryman did not see O'Reilly that night, nor, in fact, did anyone. But the next morning he appeared before General Gomez. He was haggard, sick, listless. The old Porto Rican had heard from Lopez in the meantime; he was

judging Weyler the keenest satisfaction; for nowhere did the rebellion lift its head—except, perhaps, among the ranks of those disaffected men who hid in the hills, with nothing above them but the open sky. As for the population at large, it was cured of reason! It no longer resisted, even weakly, the pressure of his hand. Colonel Lopez walked away into the darkness.

Judson had his adventurous countryman did not see O'Reilly that night, nor, in fact, did anyone. But the next morning he appeared before General Gomez. He was haggard, sick, listless. The old Porto Rican had heard from Lopez in the meantime; he was

judging Weyler the keenest satisfaction; for nowhere did the rebellion lift its head—except, perhaps, among the ranks of those disaffected men who hid in the hills, with nothing above them but the open sky. As for the population at large, it was cured of reason! It no longer resisted, even weakly, the pressure of his hand. Colonel Lopez walked away into the darkness.

Judson had his adventurous countryman did not see O'Reilly that night, nor, in fact, did anyone. But the next morning he appeared before General Gomez. He was haggard, sick, listless. The old Porto Rican had heard from Lopez in the meantime; he was

judging Weyler the keenest satisfaction; for nowhere did the rebellion lift its head—except, perhaps, among the ranks of those disaffected men who hid in the hills, with nothing above them but the open sky. As for the population at large, it was cured of reason! It no longer resisted, even weakly, the pressure of his hand. Colonel Lopez walked away into the darkness.

Judson had his adventurous countryman did not see O'Reilly that night, nor, in fact, did anyone. But the next morning he appeared before General Gomez. He was haggard, sick, listless. The old Porto Rican had heard from Lopez in the meantime; he was

judging Weyler the keenest satisfaction; for nowhere did the rebellion lift its head—except, perhaps, among the ranks of those disaffected men who hid in the hills, with nothing above them but the open sky. As for the population at large, it was cured of reason! It no longer resisted, even weakly, the pressure of his hand. Colonel Lopez walked away into the darkness.

Judson had his adventurous countryman did not see O'Reilly that night, nor, in fact, did anyone. But the next morning he appeared before General Gomez. He was haggard, sick, listless. The old Porto Rican had heard from Lopez in the meantime; he was

judging Weyler the keenest satisfaction; for nowhere did the rebellion lift its head—except, perhaps, among the ranks of those disaffected men who hid in the hills, with nothing above them but the open sky. As for the population at large, it was cured of reason! It no longer resisted, even weakly, the pressure of his hand. Colonel Lopez walked away into the darkness.

Judson had his adventurous countryman did not see O'Reilly that night, nor, in fact, did anyone. But the next morning he appeared before General Gomez. He was haggard, sick, listless. The old Porto Rican had heard from Lopez in the meantime; he was

judging Weyler the keenest satisfaction; for nowhere did the rebellion lift its head—except, perhaps, among the ranks of those disaffected men who hid in the hills, with nothing above them but the open sky. As for the population at large, it was cured of reason! It no longer resisted, even weakly, the pressure of his hand. Colonel Lopez walked away into the darkness.

Judson had his adventurous countryman did not see O'Reilly that night, nor, in fact, did anyone. But the next morning he appeared before General Gomez. He was haggard, sick, listless. The old Porto Rican had heard from Lopez in the meantime; he was

judging Weyler the keenest satisfaction; for nowhere did the rebellion lift its head—except, perhaps, among the ranks of those disaffected men who hid in the hills, with nothing above them but the open sky. As for the population at large, it was cured of reason! It no longer resisted, even weakly, the pressure of his hand. Colonel Lopez walked away into the darkness.

Judson had his adventurous countryman did not see O'Reilly that night, nor, in fact, did anyone. But the next morning he appeared before General Gomez. He was haggard, sick, listless. The old Porto Rican had heard from Lopez in the meantime; he was

judging Weyler the keenest satisfaction; for nowhere did the rebellion lift its head—except, perhaps, among the ranks of those disaffected men who hid in the hills, with nothing above them but the open sky. As for the population at large, it was cured of reason! It no longer resisted, even weakly, the pressure of his hand. Colonel Lopez walked away into the darkness.

Judson had his adventurous countryman did not see O'Reilly that night, nor, in fact, did anyone. But the next morning he appeared before General Gomez. He was haggard, sick, listless. The old Porto Rican had heard from Lopez in the meantime; he was

judging Weyler the keenest satisfaction; for nowhere did the rebellion lift its head—except, perhaps, among the ranks of those disaffected men who hid in the hills, with nothing above them but the open sky. As for the population at large, it was cured of reason! It no longer resisted, even weakly, the pressure of his hand. Colonel Lopez walked away into the darkness.

Judson had his adventurous countryman did not see O'Reilly that night, nor, in fact, did anyone. But the next morning he appeared before General Gomez. He was haggard, sick, listless. The old Porto Rican had heard from Lopez in the meantime; he was

judging Weyler the keenest satisfaction; for nowhere did the rebellion lift its head—except, perhaps, among the ranks of those disaffected men who hid in the hills, with nothing above them but the open sky. As for the population at large, it was cured of reason! It no longer resisted, even weakly, the pressure of his hand. Colonel Lopez walked away into the darkness.

Judson had his adventurous countryman did not see O'Reilly that night, nor, in fact, did anyone. But the next morning he appeared before General Gomez. He was haggard, sick, listless. The old Porto Rican had heard from Lopez in the meantime; he was

judging Weyler the keenest satisfaction; for nowhere did the rebellion lift its head—except, perhaps, among the ranks of those disaffected men who hid in the hills, with nothing above them but the open sky. As for the population at large, it was cured of reason! It no longer resisted, even weakly, the pressure of his hand. Colonel Lopez walked away into the darkness.

Judson had his adventurous countryman did not see O'Reilly that night, nor, in fact, did anyone. But the next morning he appeared before General Gomez. He was haggard, sick, listless. The old Porto Rican had heard from Lopez in the meantime; he was

judging Weyler the keenest satisfaction; for nowhere did the rebellion lift its head—except, perhaps, among the ranks of those disaffected men who hid in the hills, with nothing above them but the open sky. As for the population at large, it was cured of reason! It no longer resisted, even weakly, the pressure of his hand. Colonel Lopez walked away into the darkness.

Judson had his adventurous countryman did not see O'Reilly that night, nor, in fact, did anyone. But the next morning he appeared before General Gomez. He was haggard, sick, listless. The old Porto Rican had heard from Lopez in the meantime; he was

judging Weyler the keenest satisfaction; for nowhere did the rebellion lift its head—except, perhaps, among the ranks of those disaffected men who hid in the hills, with nothing above them but the open sky. As for the population at large, it was cured of reason! It no longer resisted, even weakly, the pressure of his hand. Colonel Lopez walked away into the darkness.

Judson had his adventurous countryman did not see O'Reilly that night, nor, in fact, did anyone. But the next morning he appeared before General Gomez. He was haggard, sick, listless. The old Porto Rican had heard from Lopez in the meantime; he was

judging Weyler the keenest satisfaction; for nowhere did the rebellion lift its head—except, perhaps, among the ranks of those disaffected men who hid in the hills, with nothing above them but the open sky. As for the population at large, it was cured of reason! It no longer resisted, even weakly, the pressure of his hand. Colonel Lopez walked away into the darkness.

Judson had his adventurous countryman did not see O'Reilly that night, nor, in fact, did anyone. But the next morning he appeared before General Gomez. He was haggard, sick, listless. The old Porto Rican had heard from Lopez in the meantime; he was

judging Weyler the keenest satisfaction; for nowhere did the rebellion lift its head—except, perhaps, among the ranks of those disaffected men who hid in the hills, with nothing above them but the open sky. As for the population at large, it was cured of reason! It no longer resisted, even weakly, the pressure of his hand. Colonel Lopez walked away into the darkness.

Judson had his adventurous countryman did not see O'Reilly that night, nor, in fact, did anyone. But the next morning he appeared before General Gomez. He was haggard, sick,

JANESEVILLE GAZETTE
Classified Advertising

CLASSIFIED RATES

insertion	5¢ per line
insertions	5¢ per line
each insertion	5¢ per line
(Five words to a line)
Monthly Ads (no charge of copy)
$1.25 per line, no matter

NO AD TAKEN LESS THAN 2 LINES OR LESS THAN 2 LINES.

CONTRACT RATES furnished on application to the Gazette office.

ADVERTISING RATES—All Want Ads must be in before 12 noon of day of publication.

OUT-OF-TOWN ADS must be accompanied by cash or full payment for same. Count the words carefully and send in accordance with above rates.

The Gazette reserves the right to classify all ads according to its own discretion.

TELEPHONE YOUR WANT ADS when it is more convenient for you to do so. Call with name, $2. You and the telephone are a communication service. The Gazette expects payment promptly on receipt of bill.

Persons in other City Directory or Telephone Directory must send cash with their advertisements.

BOTH PHONES 77

SPECIAL NOTICES

AWAYS—What you think of ? ? ? ? think of H. P. Beers.

JADES HONED—25¢. Premo Bros.

LOST AND FOUND

BENDER CANVAS lost on N. Main St. on Avalon road. Finder please return to Miss Daisy Fleet at Mercy Hospital. Reward.

HANS—Lost. Automobile chassis 3232 between Brookfield and Janesville Monday noon. Finder please return to Miss Daisy Fleet at Mercy Hospital. Reward.

WOMAN—Large black blouse with white flowers. Please return to Gatzke office or call R. C. phone 2217.

FEMALE HELP WANTED

DOMESTIC GIRL—For general housework. Apply Mrs. V. C. Richardson, 703 S. Lawrence Ave.

DESS ASHER and experienced waitress. Royal Cafe, 12 N. Main St.

DESS WASHING—One who is able to operate dishwashing machine. Good wages. Also chamber maid. Apply in person. Myers Hotel.

BED SHEETER—$5.00, cool, laundry, waiters, private houses or hotels. Mrs. E. McCarthy, Licensed Agent. Both phones.

LADY—Middle-aged lady housekeeper or no washing. Bell phone 1887.

SALESMAN and stock-keeper for a first class retail-store on W. Milt. St. Girl with some experience preferred. Address "Saleslady," Care Gazette.

2 GIRLS—Between 16 and 17 years with permits for room feeders. Hough shade Corporation.

TWO GIRLS for carnival. Short weight about 115 pounds. Apply at Jane. Mrs. Baumann, 508 Milwaukee St.

2 GIRLS—Over 17 years of age through shade Corporation.

WOMAN—To help one day each week with washing. 553 S. Main St.

2 GIRLS—Between 16 and 17 years with permits for room feeders. Hough shade Corporation.

SALE HELP WANTED

LAUNDRIES—C. E. Cochran & Co., Court St.

WANTED—Man to work in the yard Friday morning. Mrs. David Holmes, 439 East St.

MAN for shipping room. Steady work. Apply in person. Covington's Baking Co.

MARIE—MAN to raise tobacco on shares. Inquire Frank N. Kressler, Kress Co.

PAINTER—Good wages. N. M. Christensen. Both phones.

AGENTS AND SALESMEN

SALESMAN—If you have a horse and buggy or automobile, liberal salary and expense proposition setting for paper. Wisconsin. Protection desired. Sales Manager, 807 S. Baldwin Street, Racine. Bldg., Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

SITUATIONS WANTED

Want work. Ardent worker preferred. Bell phone 2249 or call 2221 S. High St.

WANTED—Employment by young man from draft. At present employed at good salary, but desires change. Some experience travelling. Can furnish No. references. Address A. M. Care Gazette.

ROOMS FOR RENT

HIGH ST. S. 115—Modern front room, $1.50. Back room, $1.00.

STREET—Modern, suitable for single room. R. C. phone 1887.

ROOM IN ST. N.—Large furnished room, suitable for two.

LIGHT HOUSEKEEPING ROOMS

COLLEGE ST. S. 427—To let, three small rooms for light housekeeping. New phone blue 348.

ROOMS—Furnished light housekeeping rooms. Bell phone 1314.

LIVESTOCK AND VEHICLES

REEDIAN MAKER for sale. Weight about 1,100 lbs. Cheap. If taken at once, R. C. phone 320 Black.

HORSES—For sale, good team of horses weighing 2,000 lbs. Call R. C. phone 824.

WAGONS—Two single wagons, formerly used by us for delivery work. Ready to go. For sale at reasonable prices. H. C. Bros.

WAGON for sale. Farm truck wagon. Newly built. Call Bell phone 885.

WORK HORSES—For sale, 11 years old, weight 1,000 lbs. Bell phone 202.

WORK HORSES—For sale, six head good work horses from 5 to 7 years old. L. Dutcher, 109 N. First St.

POULTRY AND PET STOCK

BABY CHICKS wanted—Will pay the highest prices. Call Bell phone 1874 after 8 p.m., or call at 103 Court St. after 8 p.m.

CHICKENS for sale. Fine laying, single comb, white leghorn chickens. Bell phone 9917-J5.

PICKERELS for sale—Two buff Rock Pickeral. Inquire J. W. Echlin, Court St.

Sell Your Surplus

"Chicken raising," says GENERAL WANT, "can be made a business or merely a hobby. In either case it pays in health and money."

If you have a well selected stock, advise your surplus eggs for hatching. A great many families in Janesville cut down the high cost of living by keeping a few chickens in the backyard. These people are always on the lookout for good laying stock. A Gazette Classified Ad will reach them. Now's the time to phone this ad to the Gazette. The Gazette reaches hundreds of chicken-raisers throughout this section.

R. C. Phones, 77; Bell, 77.
And ask for CLASSIFIED Dept.

POULTRY AND PET STOCK

(Continued.)

EGGS for sale—S. C. H. 1. Red eggs for setting. R. C. phone Black 206.

MISCELLANEOUS FOR SALE

COASTERS WAGONS—The Janesville Bell Bearing coaster wagons. Take a look at them; they are truly a wonderful coaster. Talk To Lowell.

DESKS—Roll top desk and office chair. Phone Red 1143.

INK BARRELS—Inquire at Gazette office.

GARDEN MOWERS—Now is the time to start to make your lawn look nice. You can keep it in shape with one of Lowell's Bell Bearing Mowers. Talk To Lowell.

PHONOGRAPH—One Victor Phonograph with records. One silk lamp shade for electric lamp. One fur auto robe. 2 collapsible auto chairs. One hand cultivator. One large size ice box. Bell phone 1355 or 325 S. Court St.

WINDMILLS—Auto oiled. Aeromotor windmills gears running in oil. Old mills repaired. All kinds of pump repairing. Talk To Lowell.

MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS

USED PIANO—A fine piano waiting for someone. Who wants it? R. F. Note, 343 W. Milwaukee St.

MACHINERY AND TOOLS

CORDWOOD SAWS

24-in., 26-in., 28-in.

BICKNELL MFG. & SUPPLY CO.

Cord, Academy & Wall.

MANURE SPREADERS—New stock, prices right. Five year written guarantee with each spreader. H. P. Hartlow & Co., Tiffany, Wis.

HOUSEHOLD GOODS

BABY BUGGY for sale. Good condition. R. C. phone White 250.

OIL COOK STOVES

Come in and let us demonstrate the Florence Oil Cook Stove; no Wick, no smoke, no odor.

FRANK DOUGLAS

Practical Hardware, 15-17 S. River St.

OIL COOK STOVES—Perfection Blue Flame and Clark's oil cook stove. Same as D. L. Daverkosen. Both phones.

REFRIGERATORS

We carry a complete line of refrigerators from $18 up.

FRANK DOUGLAS

Practical Hardware, 15-17 S. River St.

TRANFER AND STORAGE

PAINTS—To Lowell—Dry and clean warehouse for storage of stoves and furniture. 109 W. Milwaukee St. Both phones.

INSURANCE

BEST LIFE INSURANCE—Northwestern Mutual, F. A. Backman, Agent, Jackman Block, Both phones.

AUTOMOBILES FOR SALE

1920 touring car, R. C. phone 1024.

BURGESS—No dealers. R. C. phone 789.

PLANTS AND SEEDS

FRUIT TREES AND PLANTS

Apple trees, 5 to 7 feet each.

Best fruit cherry trees, 60c.

Peach trees, 5 to 7 feet 35c.

Strawberries 75c per hundred.

Haspberries, $2.00 per hundred.

Currents, Gooseberries and Grapes, $1.50 per dozen.

Flowering shrubs and climbing vines, 25c each extra size, 50c each.

Hardy roses extra size, 50c each.

Send for illustrated catalog.

KELLOGG'S NURSERY

Both phone 298.

NURSERY PLANTS

Thousands of satisfied customers represent our best advertisers. For highest grade stock, write Cog. Co., Court & Edwards, Ft. Atkinson, Wisconsin.

SPECIALS AT THE SHOPS

FLORIST—Floral designs our specialty. Chas. Rathjen, W. Milwaukee St.

ROOMS FOR RENT

HIGH ST. S. 115—Modern front room,

STREET—Modern, suitable for single room. R. C. phone 1887.

ROOM IN ST. N.—Large furnished room, suitable for two.

LIGHT HOUSEKEEPING ROOMS

COLLEGE ST. S. 427—To let, three small rooms for light housekeeping.

New phone blue 348.

ROOMS—Furnished light housekeeping rooms. Bell phone 1314.

LIVESTOCK AND VEHICLES

REEDIAN MAKER for sale. Weight about 1,100 lbs. Cheap. If taken at once, R. C. phone 320 Black.

HORSES—For sale, good team of horses, weight 2,000 lbs. Bell phone 202.

WORK HORSES—For sale, six head good work horses from 5 to 7 years old. L. Dutcher, 109 N. First St.

POULTRY AND PET STOCK

BABY CHICKS wanted—Will pay

the highest prices. Call Bell phone 1874 after 8 p.m., or call at 103 Court St. after 8 p.m.

CHICKENS for sale. Fine laying, single comb, white leghorn

EMPLOYMENT OFFICES OF STATE SHOW BIG VOLUME OF BUSINESS

Madison, Wis., April 25.—A greatly increased volume of business in the free employment offices of the state is shown in the figures today made public by the Industrial Commission for the month of March. During this month a total of 4263 persons applied for work, while 4752 workmen were called for by employers; 4266 persons were referred to positions, and definite information that they secured work was given in 292 cases.

During this month an employment office was opened at Madison, which reported a total of 274 placements. This is considerably less than the total of the old offices in La Crosse and Oshkosh. The office established at Green Bay in January reported 250 placements; the Superior office 713, and the Milwaukee office 275.

The most pronounced shortage of labor is in the common labor class and in that of the highly skilled mechanics. There is little shortage of regard to specialists and handymen.

The reports of employment offices show that the demand for men in factories has been rapidly increasing. The result of this demand has been that it has become increasingly difficult to get women for domestic work.

The superintendent of the women's division of the Milwaukee free employment office reported that during the month of March only about ten per cent of the orders for domestics could be filled, and that there never has been a time since the opening of the office when the number of applicants for this service has been so small.

During this week final arrangements have been made for opening the employment office at Racine. The commission council has made appropriations to take care of the office quarters, and while the Industrial Commission and the United States Employment Service will furnish the employees. This is the third new free employment office opened in Wisconsin since the beginning of the year; the other new offices being located at Green Bay and Madison. At least two other offices will probably be opened in parts of the state not now served by the employment service.

BISHOP JOHN IRELAND IMPROVING FROM ILLNESS

[By ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

St. Paul, April 25.—Archbishop John Ireland, who recently suffered a relapse after recuperating from a physical breakdown, was somewhat improved. This forenoon it was stated at his home he had a very good night and was resting easily.

Read the classified ads.

Second Floor.

Second Floor.

J.M. BOSTWICK & SONS.
JANESEVILLE : : WISCONSIN

The Season for New Rugs

Every Housewife likes to change the looks of the rooms at this time of the year, and no one thing will do more for the rejuvenation of the whole home than a new rug.

This showing of the newest Rugs fills a springtime need, and our assortment of sizes, qualities and harmonious colorings and patterns will meet the requirements of the most discriminating. Owing to stringent market conditions it will be foresighted and wise to take advantage of these very reasonable prices.

The Whittall Anglo-Persian

You'll be particularly interested in the new creations in these, the finest rugs woven in this broad United States. You will get one hundred cents full value for every dollar expended in these fabrics, the quality is never sacrificed; can be had in 22 sizes, from 22½x36 inches to 11¼x15 feet.

The Whittall Taprac

A very heavy wear-resisting, low priced Wilton Rug, Whittall standard, in color designs and durability. The equal of higher priced Wiltons. Come in and see our wonderful assortment.

Body Brussels Rugs

A high grade full five-frame Body Brussels Rugs at moderate cost. They come in every required size and colors, inexpensive, but thoroughly reliable, note the price, 9x12 size Body Brussels, at..... $36.50

Wilton Velvet Rugs

Standard Seamless Wilton Velvet Rugs, in the new Persian, Chinese and Egyptian designs and colors; a rug for service, we recommend them; worth $45.00, at the special price, 9x12 size, at..... $35.00

The Tremont Rug

The Wool and Rope Stock Rug, that is reversible, rich in coloring and durable; comes seamless and shown in many sizes; a rug for service at a low price; 9x12 size, special at

Linoleums

Come and see the largest stock of Linoleums in this part of the state. We have these sanitary, durable and every popular floor coverings, designed for every room in the house.

Figured Linoleums, 2 yards wide, per square yard
59c AND 85c

Inlaid Linoleums, 2 yard wide, per square yard,
$1.00 TO $1.95

Battleship Linoleum, 2 yards wide, (plain colors) per square yard
$1.45 AND $1.85

Lace Curtains and Curtain Material

Nothing means more to the right furnishings of your home than the window hangings. We are now showing quantities of new curtains and curtain materials and just look at these prices:

Filet Lace Curtains

Special for Friday and Saturday Only

These popular and stylish Curtains are unusually desirable and come in handsome patterns; colors: Ivory and Ecru; regular $2.50 value; special for Friday and Saturday only, pair $1.95

St. Gall Curtains

Imported Irish Point and Dutchess Point Curtains from St. Gall, in Ivory and Champagne tints; a wonderful assortment of beautiful designs to select from, at..... $5.50 TO $16.00

Colored Madras

Everything new and desirable in Colored Madras is here, by the yard, 35c, 39c, 45c 36 inches wide, the yard.....

Panel Lace

Sectional Panel Lace. Have you windows of varying widths? Sectional Panel Lace will solve your problem of curtaining them; Sectional Panel Lace is an improvement on the panel curtains, inasmuch as it may be cut any desired width at the specially woven intersection without breaking the pattern; Panel Lace at the section

55c TO $1.25

NEW METHOD SHOES

Are bought of only such factories that consider only quantity and not price, making their business in volume the same as the New Method gives you the best Shoes possible for less money.

We Are Selling White Shoes and Pumps at the Following Prices:

$3.35, $3.85, $4.35, $4.85

Get Yours Before They Are All Sold Out.

S-H-O-E-S
N E W M E T H O D
N SHOE PARLORS

212 HAYES BLOCK.

2ND FLOOR, UP STAIRS.

The Golden Eagle Levy's

We have the Clothes FOR Young Men

IT matters little into which department of this perfectly equipped store one may go, the completeness of the display and the general air of preparedness never fail to impress favorably it's the best clothing store. Here are exhibited models and fabrics in largest assortment of the best young men's clothes' makers. We invite the young men's attention to our Recruit, West Point and Militaire models which are featured in special display, at $20 $25 $30

It's Time For Top Coats

This weather makes the Top Coat a necessity, we have a wonderful selection at $15, $18, $20 and up to $35

Society Brand Clothes